

Dr Amitav Banerjee, Professor, Department of Community Medicine was invited by Surindra Rajabhat University, Surin, Thailand as guest of honor during the annual academic and cultural meet hosted by the University between 15 Jan to 25 Jan 2016. Delegates from 19 countries participated in the event.

Dr Banerjee, participated in the following events:

1. As Editor in Chief was on Panel of commentators with other international editors during the new journals release event of the University.
2. Was speaker on "Manuscript Writing - Editor's perspective" during the plenary session of Journal Declaration event.
3. Was commentator during the oral paper presentation by PhD and Masters Program students of the University.
4. Delivered Key Note Address, "Role of Medicine in a Conflicting World" during the International Public Health Conference.

Dr Amitav Banerjee, also represented Dr DY Patil Medical College in co-hosting the International Public Health Conference, at Surin, Thailand.

The DPU logo was displayed in the banner and the souvenir released during the conference. Dr Banerjee also signed the certificates given to participants in the conference.

Opening ceremony cultural events

With PhD Students and guides and below Dr Odettee, from USA inaugurating the conference.

Delivering Key Note and below presenting Certificate to Masters Program Student