

Dr. Amitav Banerjee was invited by Surindra Rajabhat University

Dr. Amitav Banerjee, Professor, Department of Community Medicine was invited as one of the International Guest Faculty for International Seminar on Public Health from 15th January to 20th January 2015, coinciding with the 10th Surin International Festival, by Surindra Rajabhat University, Surin Province, Thailand.

Dr. Banerjee participated in the following academic activities between 15th to 20th January 2015:

- Keynote speaker – Alternative medicine in India
- Panel discussion on Drug, Food, Health and Consumer
- Expert referee and chair during presentation of dissertations for Masters in Public Health course conducted by the university.
- Expert international faculty for curriculum development in health sciences to be conducted by the university.
- Chair and commentator during release of academic journals launched by the university.

The university authorities have also acknowledged Dr. D. Y. Patil Medical College, Pune, India as one of the collaborative partners for this international conference on public health in the souvenir published during the occasion. Besides Dr. D. Y. Patil Medical College from Pune, the other collaborative institutions are Hainan Medical University China, Bangkok University Thailand, and institutions from Bangladesh and Sri Lanka. Delegates from 25 nations participated in this International Academic and Cultural Meet.